This Week's Icebreaker Question:

What are your Thanksgiving plans? If you don't have any, maybe you can all get together at a restaurant that day or invite all those who might be alone to eat together instead.

Sermon Specific Questions:

1. If Satan "prowls around like a roaring lion seeking someone to devour," then how does this apply to us being more alert to how he comes so discreetly. Is there a time a friend/ family could see the enemy at work in your life, but you couldn't, and they helped open your eyes to Satan's attack against you? (note: that's' why Life Groups are so important, the accountability)

2. In Isaiah 14 we see Satan and the pride in his heart began to show with all the "I will" statements. It was pride that led to his fall. How do you personally, daily, keep a humble heart and attitude before God and others?

3. If Satan only has the reach God gives him, and the power that God allows him to have and then we see in Luke 10:18 and how he, "fell like lightning from Heaven" so quickly, then with whom can you share this info to encourage them that the struggle they might be in currently is no match to the power and greatness of God? Or maybe that is even good news just for you!
