Sermon Specific Questions:

1. Psalm 91:14-16 is the Lord’s response to verses 1-13. Why is it important for us to remember that God not only hears us when we call out to him, but He also answers us, just as verse 15 states? How does this build your faith & impact your prayer life?
2. In Psalm 91:14 we are promised that God will deliver and protect, and in verse 15 we are promised that God will be with us in trouble and will rescue us. These verses, along with Psalm 46:1 and John 16:33, remind us that we aren’t absent from troubles and that we won’t have to face them alone. What are some ways your soul finds rest in these promises instead of wrestling with the surrounding problems?
3. We see in the last three verses of Psalm 91 that there are incredible promises of God’s faithfulness and blessing to those who hold fast to God in love and call out to Him. What would you say to somebody who is struggling to believe that God is faithful and lovingly blesses His children? How do these verses encourage your spirit for the week ahead?
